

20 Keys of Conscious Creation

1. The Divine Matrix is the container that holds the universe, the bridge between all things, and the mirror that shows us what we have created.
2. Everything in our world is connected to everything else.
3. To tap the force of the universe itself, we must see ourselves as part of the world rather than separate from it.
4. Once something is joined, it is always connected, whether it remains physically linked or not.
5. The act of focusing our consciousness is an act of creation. Consciousness creates!
6. We have all the power we need to create all the changes we choose!
7. The focus of our awareness becomes the reality of our world.
8. To simply say that we choose a new reality is not enough!
9. Feeling is the language that “speaks” to the Divine Matrix. Feel as though your goal is accomplished and your prayer is already answered.
10. Not just any feeling will do. The ones that create must be without ego and judgment.
11. We must become in our lives the things that we choose to experience as our world.
12. We are not bound by the laws of physics as we know them today.
13. In a holographic “something,” every piece of the something mirrors the whole something.
14. The universally connected hologram of consciousness promises that the instant we create our good wishes and prayers, they are already received at their destination.
15. Through the hologram of consciousness, a little change in our lives is mirrored everywhere in our world.
16. The minimum number of people required to “jump start” a change in consciousness is the root of 1% of a population.
17. The Divine Matrix serves as the mirror in our world of the relationships that we create in our beliefs.
18. The root of our “negative” experiences may be reduced to one of three universal fears (or a combination of them): abandonment, low self-worth, or lack of trust.
19. Our true beliefs are mirrored in our most intimate relationships.
20. We must become in our lives the very things that we choose to experience in our world.

WORDS FROM MYRTLE FILLMORE

Prayer is an exercise to change our thought habits and our living habits, that we may set up a new and better activity, in accord with the divine law rather than with the suggestions we have received from various sources.

We have a very decided part; we are to cease worrying, and being anxious, and thinking and speaking of the past and of the apparent lack and idleness. We are to concentrate all our attention upon the Truth of God, and the truth of our own being, upon the very things we would see taking place in our lives. We cannot do this so long as we have negative thoughts in our hearts.

Show me the seeds you sow and the thoughts you think and I can foretell the manner of your harvest, for it is the same in our mind world or in the soil world.

You do not have a problem except the one that is in your own mind, and you put it there!

WORDS FROM CHARLES FILLMORE

You must first enter into the understanding that God, omnipresent, omnipotent, and omniscient, is the source and that you can draw on this source without limit.

Divine love in the heart establishes one in fearlessness and indomitable courage.

There is an invisible thought-stuff on which the mind acts, making things through the operation of a law not yet fully understood by man. Every thought moves upon this invisible substance in increasing or diminishing degree. When we praise the richness and fullness of God, this thought-stuff is tremendously increased in our mental atmosphere. It reflects into everything that our mind and our hands touch.

The universe was not created through illogical assumptions of law. Law is its foundation. There are no miracles in science. Jesus did no miracles. All His marvelous works were done under laws that we may learn and use as He did. As the body is moved by mind, so the mind is moved by ideas; and right here in the mind we find the secret of the universe. This is where Jesus differed from ordinary men: He knew He was the Son of God; He knew the power of spiritual ideas to do mighty works: "The Father abiding in me doeth his works".
